5  Convert Death and Lump-sum TPD cover (if applicable) to or from fixed cover

☐ I would like to convert my unitised Death and Lump-sum TPD cover (if applicable) to fixed cover:
I understand my cover will be rounded up to the nearest $1,000. My sum insured will remain the same, however insurance fees may increase each year.

Please note: for members over the age of 60, Lump-sum TPD Cover amounts will reduce by 10% for each complete year after age 60. If a member is over 60 when TPD Cover is fixed, the cover amount will reduce in equal amounts greater than 10% for each full year until age 70 when cover for TPD stops completely.

☐ I would like to convert my fixed Death and Lump-sum TPD cover (if applicable) to unitised cover:
You will be provided with same number of units that equate to your current level of cover (rounded up to the nearest unit value). Any increase in cover as a result of this rounding will be New Events Cover only.

New Events Cover means a member is only covered for claims arising from a sickness which first becomes apparent or an injury which first occurs on or after the date cover last commenced, or was reinstated in respect of the member.

Duty of disclosure

HESTA has taken out a contract of insurance with an insurer to provide the insurance benefits in the Fund. On becoming an insured member, you are bound by the terms and conditions of this contract of insurance. When you apply for insurance cover and before that cover is accepted by the insurer, you have a duty to tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the insurer’s decision to provide the insurance and on what terms.

You have this duty of disclosure until the insurance is provided. You have the same duty before you extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk of the insurance, or
- is common knowledge, or
- the insurer knows or should know as an insurer, or
- reduces the risk of the insurance, or
- the insurer waives the duty to tell the insurer about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that affects the insurer’s decision to provide the insurance, then the insurer can exercise a number of remedies under the contract.
This means that it can do any one of the following things:

a) the insurer can treat your insurance cover as never having commenced. The insurer can do this if it becomes aware of something which you should have told them before entering into the contract and that fact would have meant that the insurer would not have agreed to provide insurance cover to you on any terms e.g. they would not have given you insurance even if you agreed to pay an extra premium; or

b) the insurer can reduce the amount of insurance cover provided to you; or

c) the insurer may choose to continue to provide you with insurance cover but change the basis upon which it provides that insurance to you (vary the contract). If the insurer chooses to do this, then it will do so by putting the insurer back in the same position it would have been in had you told the insurer everything you should have.

NOTE: The insurer can only exercise options a) and b) within 3 years of providing you with insurance cover.

The insurer cannot exercise option c) if you are only insured for death insurance.

If the insurer chooses to do any one of a), b) or c) then the insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If the insurer can treat your cover separately, it can choose to apply any one of these options separately to each type of insurance. This means that if you are insured for death and TPD cover, the insurer may treat your TPD cover as never having commenced but allow your death insurance cover to continue.

If you fail to provide all the information which you are required to provide (your duty of disclosure) and the failure is fraudulent, then the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat your insurance cover as never having commenced.

6 Declaration

- I am aware/understand insurance cover through HESTA will only be provided as set out in the contract of insurance that the Trustee of HESTA holds with the insurer (as amended from time to time).
- In choosing to cancel or reduce my cover, I acknowledge I will no longer be insured for that amount and type of cover.
- I have read and understood the HESTA Privacy Collection Statement and consent to the Trustee of HESTA collecting, using and disclosing my personal information.
- I declare the answers to all of the questions in the Personal Statement (if completed due to changing from unitised to fixed cover) and the declarations given by me are true and correct (including those not in my own handwriting). I have not withheld any information which may affect the insurer’s decision to provide insurance cover.
- I have read and understand the Duty of disclosure, and have not withheld any information that may affect the insurer’s decision as to whether to accept my application for transfer of insurance cover. I understand that the Duty of disclosure continues after I have completed this statement until I am notified of acceptance in writing by the Trustee.
- By applying to amend my insurance cover I elect to maintain my cover should my HESTA account become ‘inactive’. I understand I will also be excluded from being transferred to the ATO if I am deemed ‘inactive low balance’.
