Who should complete this form?
This form is for HESTA members who want to transfer their individual existing Death and/or Lump-sum Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) or Income Protection (IP) Cover to HESTA.*

Important information about transferring IP Cover to HESTA
When you transfer IP Cover to HESTA, any existing HESTA IP Cover will be cancelled and replaced with the transferred cover. This may reduce the total amount of cover you hold.

How is my IP Cover transferred to HESTA?
The IP Cover amount provided through HESTA will be the greater of any existing monthly benefit with HESTA and the monthly benefit held in the former fund (subject to the maximum monthly benefit of $10,000). For example: if you held a monthly benefit of $950 through HESTA and $3,400 per month in the other fund, your cover amount through HESTA will be the higher of the two, namely $3,400 per month (as long as any monthly benefit payable does not exceed 85% of your income).

The waiting and benefit periods that apply to any transferred cover are set out below. Your existing cover including any IP Cover you already have through HESTA will be cancelled if your other cover is transferred. This could mean that you are relinquishing existing HESTA cover with benefit payments available to age 67 (our default arrangement) on transfer of a higher cover amount, perhaps with benefits limited to only two years.

What benefit period will apply to my IP Cover?
When you transfer IP Cover to HESTA, the benefit period that applies to your IP Cover will be based on the benefit period under the former cover:
• to age 67, if your benefit period was to an age greater than 60
• to age 60, if your previous benefit period was to age 60
• to two years, if your previous benefit period was at least two years, but would expire before age 60

What waiting period will apply to my IP Cover?
When you transfer IP Cover to HESTA, the waiting period that applies will be based on the waiting period under the former cover
• 30 days, if it was 30 days or less
• 60 days, if it was between 30 days and 60 days (inclusive)
• 90 days, if it was greater than 60 days but less than or equal to 90 days.

If your former cover has a waiting period greater than 90 days, you will not be eligible to transfer cover to HESTA.

You can only apply to transfer your insurance cover to HESTA if:
• your former insurance cover is held through another super fund and not a SMSF or retail policy
• you are aged between 15 and 55
• you have not made, and you are not entitled to make, a claim in relation to your former cover
• you wish to transfer cover up to a maximum of $1 million for Death Cover and/or Lump-sum TPD Cover
• where incoming sums insured are added to existing cover, the new maximum sum insured resulting from the transfer and existing cover must not exceed $1.5 million
• you wish to transfer IP Cover up to a maximum monthly benefit of $10,000 per month
• you agree to cancel your former cover within 60 days otherwise your HESTA claim may not be paid
• you agree that your transferred cover provided through HESTA will be subject to any underwriting terms applying to the former cover.

Note: if you don’t own the policy, the policy owner will need to confirm cancellation of the cover by sending a copy of the cancellation letter within 60 days.

*Some insurers may refer to Income Protection as Group Salary Continuance (GSC) or Salary Continuance Insurance (SCI).
How is my Death and Lump-sum TPD Cover transferred to HESTA?
The Death and/or Lump-sum TPD Cover provided through HESTA will be the total of any existing cover through HESTA and the amount of cover held in the former fund or under the former policy (subject to the maximum limits set out on page 1. For example, if you held fixed cover of $170,000 through HESTA and $170,000 in the other fund, your total cover through HESTA will be $340,000.

If you have fixed Lump-sum TPD Cover, the amount available cannot exceed your Death Cover and is reduced by 10% for each complete year after age 60.

Other cover transfer FAQs

When can I transfer my cover to HESTA?
You can transfer cover held under a previous super fund to HESTA. This includes cover obtained through your former fund’s default arrangements or any previously underwritten cover.

What happens if I was underwritten previously?
Any limitation, restriction or loading that applied to your cover in the former fund will continue to apply to your cover through HESTA. For example, if your Lump-sum TPD Cover in the former fund had a back exclusion, that back exclusion will apply to your transferred IP Cover or increased Lump-sum TPD Cover held in HESTA.

Can I transfer different types of cover to HESTA?
Yes, you can transfer Death, Lump-sum TPD and IP Cover, but partial transfers of cover are not allowed. For example, if you hold $500,000 Death Cover in the former fund, you must transfer the entire $500,000 to HESTA. If you attempt to transfer only $250,000 your application will not be approved. However, you may transfer the full cover and then reduce your cover through HESTA at any time.

Is there a limit to how many times I can use this form?
No. However, there are maximum benefit levels for Death, Lump-sum TPD and IP Cover that can be transferred. Also, as described on page 1, IP Cover will be the greater amount of any monthly benefit existing at that time through HESTA and the monthly benefit being transferred from a former fund.

How can I transfer my super balance to HESTA?
You cannot transfer your super to HESTA using this form. To rollover your super into HESTA, please use the rollover form available at hesta.com.au/rollover or call 1800 813 327.

Do conditions apply to increased cover?
Any increase in insurance due to rounding-up of units is provided as New Events Cover, only. This means that you are only eligible for a claim arising from an injury which occurs, or a sickness which first becomes apparent, on or after the date that New Events Cover is accepted by the insurer.

Important notice

Your duty of disclosure
HESTA has taken out a contract of insurance with an insurer to provide the insurance benefits in the Fund. On becoming an insured member, you are bound by the terms and conditions of this contract of insurance. When you apply for insurance cover and before that cover is accepted by the Insurer, you have a duty to tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect the insurer’s decision to provide the insurance and on what terms.

You have this duty of disclosure until the insurance is provided.

You have the same duty before you extend, vary or reinstate the contract.

You do not need to tell the insurer anything that:

- reduces the risk of the insurance, or
- is common knowledge, or
- the insurer knows or should know as an insurer, or
- the insurer waives the duty to tell the insurer about.

If you do not tell us something
If you do not tell the insurer anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that affects the insurer’s decision to provide the insurance, then the insurer can exercise a number of remedies under the contract.

This means that it can do any one of the following things:

a) the insurer can treat your insurance cover as never having commenced. The insurer can do this if it becomes aware of something which you should have told them before entering into the contract and that fact would have meant that the insurer would not have agreed to provide insurance cover to you on any terms e.g. they would not have given you insurance even if you agreed to pay an extra premium; or

b) the insurer can reduce the amount of insurance cover provided to you; or

c) the insurer may choose to continue to provide you with insurance cover but change the basis upon which it provides that insurance to you (vary the contract). If the insurer chooses to do this, then it will do so by putting the insurer back in the same position it would have been in had you told the insurer everything you should have.

NOTE: The insurer can only exercise options a) and b) within three years of providing you with insurance cover. The insurer cannot exercise option c) if you are only insured for death insurance.

If the insurer chooses to do any one of a), b) or c) then the insurer may consider whether different types of cover can constitute separate contracts of life insurance. If the insurer can treat your cover separately, it can choose to apply any one of these options separately to each type of insurance. This means that if you are insured for Death and TPD Cover, the insurer may treat your TPD cover as never having commenced but allow your death insurance cover to continue.

If you fail to provide all the information which you are required to provide (your duty of disclosure) and the failure is fraudulent, then the insurer may refuse to pay a claim and treat your insurance as never having commenced.

What you need to do
1. Read the information on pages 1 and 2 carefully.
2. Complete all sections of the Insurance transfer form.
3. Attach a copy of your most recent statement from your other fund (issued within the last 12 months) which sets out the type and level of cover you have with them. If your insurance cover has changed since the date of your most recent statement, you will need to provide evidence of the current type and level of cover.
4. Attach a copy of any special acceptance terms you agreed to with your former cover (i.e. if your cover is subject to a restriction, exclusion, limitation or insurance fee loading, you need to provide us with information concerning that limitation/loading).
5. Sign and date the declaration on page 5.
6. Return the completed form to: AIA Australia PO Box 6111, Melbourne VIC 3004.

Ensure you have read and understood the information contained in this document before completing this form, including the important duty of disclosure information, as non-disclosure may affect your ability to claim.

Date cover started:
Lump-sum TPD Cover $
Date cover started:

b) IP Cover/Group Salary Continuance

STOP: ONLY complete this section if you want to transfer your IP Cover. Read Important information about transferring IP Cover to HESTA on page 1 before completing this section.

IP Cover per month/Group Salary Continuance $
Date cover started:
IP waiting period ___ days

Note: If your former cover has a waiting period greater than 90 days, you will not be eligible to transfer cover to HESTA.

IP Cover and benefits to age ___ OR __
IP Cover to expiry age ___ with a ___ year benefit period.

Note: transferred cover will be converted to units of HESTA’s IP Cover, rounded to the next highest unit (if rounding is required), subject to the limit set out on page 1.

c) Conversion of unitised cover to Death and Lump-sum TPD fixed cover (if applicable).

I would like to convert my unitised cover to fixed cover:

Yes  No

I understand my cover will be rounded to the nearest $1,000. My sum insured will remain the same each year, however the insurance fees may increase each year.

Please note: for members over the age of 60, Lump-sum TPD Cover amounts will reduce by 10% for each complete year after age 60. If a member is over 60 when Lump-sum TPD Cover is fixed, the cover amount will reduce in equal amounts of 10% for each full year until age 70 when cover for Lump-sum TPD stops completely.
I would like to convert my fixed cover to unitised cover: [ ] Yes    [ ] No

I understand my cover will be converted to the number of units relevant to my age (rounded up) to provide a similar amount of cover.

Any increased cover as a result of rounding up will be for New Events Cover only (see Insurance Options for further details.). For example, if you had $50,000 fixed cover and rounded this up to one unit of cover with a value at your age of $85,000, the additional $35,000 in cover would be for New Events Cover only.

e) Reduce my cover

Please confirm the total amount of cover you wish to have with HESTA once your transfer is completed and accepted:

OR

Is any of your existing insurance cover subject to:
insurance fee loadings; exclusions; restrictions; pre-existing conditions clauses or limitations of any kind?

[ ] Yes    [ ] No

If you answered ‘yes’ to any of the above, provide details below and attach a copy of the advice you received from the insurer or your former fund advising you of the acceptance of your cover subject to these additional terms.

3 Honesty Statement

HESTA has taken out a contract of insurance with an insurer to provide the insurance benefits in the Fund. On becoming an insured member, you are bound by the terms and conditions of this contract of insurance.

As such, you have a duty to disclose all relevant information. Failing to provide the insurer with full and accurate information could result in your insurance cover being cancelled and any claim for benefits could be denied, so it is vital you answer all questions fully and accurately.

Although we ask you specific questions via a personal statement, you should also tell us about any other information that will impact on the insurer’s decision to offer you insurance cover, regardless of whether you deem it to be material or important. This includes current medical issues that require investigation, medication or treatment, even if a diagnosis has not been made.

This obligation applies to all insurance cover relating to this application, including amounts transferred from another fund or insurance arrangement. This means you could be placed in a position where you have no insurance cover if we later find you have not answered all questions fully and accurately.

Your Duty of Disclosure continues until you receive written confirmation your application has been accepted. You must contact the insurer if there is any change in your health or circumstances that are relevant to the insurer’s decision on your application.

The full Duty of Disclosure is contained within this document and it is important you read it carefully.

Having read the above, I declare the information I am about to provide is honest, true and complete.
